

MBC Financial Cookies Policy

At MBC Financial, we use cookies to enhance your browsing experience on our website. This policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and how you can control them.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit our website. They help the website remember information about your visit, such as your preferences, and improve the functionality of the website.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of our website. They enable basic features like page navigation and access to secure areas.
- Performance Cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use our website, such as which pages are visited most often. The information collected is aggregated and anonymous, and is used to improve how the website works.
- Functional Cookies: These cookies allow the website to remember your preferences and provide enhanced, more personalised features.

Third-Party Cookies

We may use third-party services, such as analytics providers, which may also set cookies on your device. These third parties help us analyse website traffic and improve the user experience.

Managing Cookies

You can manage or delete cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to block cookies or alert you when a cookie is being set. Please note that if you disable cookies, some features of our website may not function properly.

Updates to This Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in the law or our practices. Any changes will be posted on this page.

If you have any questions about our use of cookies, please contact Alan McCarthy at alan.mccarthy@mbcfinancial.ie.
